

Biscuit and the Lost Bell

A story by Eli Rivera

a story by Eli Rivera (age 5)

Biscuit woke up in the Meadowlands. The light was soft and gold.

It felt like sunny and silly — the kind of day where anything could happen.

Then something changed. Something was missing.

Biscuit and Safron headed deep into the forest.

Suddenly — a tricky puzzle!

Biscuit chose teamwork. It was exactly what was needed.

That night they had a big feast, and Biscuit fell asleep smiling.
